Griffs Err in Ninth.

The last half of the ninth was a comedy of errors and screaming rooters. The Sox went into it five runs behind and with Zachary apparently going easy on the slab Johnson was given a life on first by Zachcary's loose peg. Mulligan filed out and then things began to happen. Collins whaled a hit over third. O'Rourke fumbled filed out and then things began to happen. Collins whaled a hit over third. O'Rourke fumbled Strunk's grounder. Falk tapped a fast one to Harris for what looked like a double play, but Haris tossed wildly to second. While the truant pill was being corraled Johnson and Collins, registered.

Collins registered.

Mostil came through with a hard drive to left center for two bases scoring Strunk and Falk and send-scoring Strunk and Str Two-base hits — Strunk, Falk, Judge, Mostil, Harris, Gharrity. Three-base hit—Judge. Home runs—Gharrity, Shanks, Struck out—By Mulrennan, 1: by Davenport, 2: by Zachary, 3. Base on balls—Off Hodge, 3: off Shanks, 2: off Schacht, 1: off Davenport, 2: sacrifice hits—McSweeney and hoisted a tall fiy to short left. Mostil made a bluff which pulled a throw home, but wisely went back to the same between the same but wisely went back to the same but with t chances were all against him and the throw, while not good, would have beaten him. Johnson flied to Smith and it was all off.

Shaw Knocked off Hill.

Shaw and Hodge were the slabbing opponents at the start. Shaw was knocked off the hill in the first round after four runs had been scored. Hodge lasted through the second in which two bases on ballh. three singles. Gharrity's home run and Judge's triple were good for four runs, tieing the count.

Zachary succeeded Shaw and for seven innings held the Sex to one up the tallies at the expense of Mulrennan, who took Hodge's place. In the third, a pass, a fielding choice, and doubles by Judge and Harris put the enemy thread runs to the good in the fourth. Mulrennan was relieved by Davengotte with two on and nobody our in the fifth, and before Dave could stop them a run came over. Shanks made his homer in the seventh and some errors and a deventh and some manufact repaired to hits to correct the list of entrants for the tournament has increased to 260, and the executive committee of the U. AHEARN TO MEET

The fighting game will be revived at Ardmore on July 26 when Goldie Ahearn, featherweight champion of the A. E. F., and Young Bowen, Washington scrapper, will cleak in Washington scrapper, will clash in the feature 10-round bout. Another good bout on the bill announced by Matchmaker Frankie Mann will be a battle between Johnny Eggleston, Washington's slugging middleweight, their series with the Cincinnati Reds washington's slugging middleweight, and Big Jeff. of Baltimore. Both of these boys are of the rock-'emand-sock-'em kind and the fight should be full of action. Big Jeff is the hardest foe Eggleston will have ever met and he has a long strips of knock-cuts to his credit.

Yesterday's performance indicates, however that he has an excellent however, that he has an excellent chance or qualifying, if he can play his usual game under the strain of tournament competition.

The short eighteen-hole qualifyo ing round is bound to give com-paratively unknown players who are thoroughly familiar with the 2 course a decided edge over more prominent players who are not con-versant with the traps and bunkers 1 which line the fairways and greens at Columbia.

and has the whole-hearted backing of the fans.

He has gone about his work in a ousiness-like way, and has been ably handled. Since the war started he has stuck to his class until he secured the needed experience. He showed his stuff when he lost a twelve-round decision to Bill Brennan last year. Then he took on some more second-raters. Now he comes back and flattens out one of the toughest birds in the game, who packs a powerful punch and outweighs film by fifteen pounds.

Martin, who scales at 185, is ready to take on any of them with the exception of Dempsey. Since his first scrap with Brennan he has learned to use his left, while his right was always dangerous. Another scrap with Brennan would do much to prove his development, and a victory over the Chicago battler would put his stock exceedingly high.
